ALASKA SUPREME COURT BEGINS LIVE STREAMING ORAL ARGUMENTS

Anchorage, Alaska (January 23, 2015) – Most Alaska Supreme Court oral arguments in Anchorage are now live streamed by 360 North and viewable at <http://www.360north.org/alaska-supreme-court/>. 360 North also maintains an archive of the oral argument videos. Oral arguments in Anchorage as well as other locations will continue to be broadcast on 360 North TV Sundays from 4:00PM to 7:00PM. Live streaming provides increased access to oral arguments for parties and other interested persons. Chief Justice Dana Fabe remarked: “One of the fundamental missions of the Alaska Court System is to be accessible all Alaskans. The court system has a history of embracing technology to make our courts more accessible. Live streaming oral arguments opens our doors even more widely, so that Alaskans can see and hear what happens in a Supreme Court oral argument.”

The Supreme Court’s oral argument calendar is viewable at <http://courts.alaska.gov/appcts.htm>. The public is welcome to attend appellate court oral arguments in person. In Anchorage, arguments are held in the fifth floor courtroom of the Boney Courthouse at 303 K Street. In Fairbanks, arguments are held in the Rabinowitz Courthouse, Courtroom 502, fifth floor, 101 Lacey Street. In Juneau, arguments are held in Courtroom A, first floor, Dimond Courthouse.
